HEALTH, SOCIAL CARE AND CHILDCARE

Kelly & Sarah's Story...

Kelly and Sarah Kynaston both graduated with a 2:1 from the BA (Hons) Health and Social Care course – deciding to do the course when they attended an open day together.

Kelly said:
“I'd wanted to go to uni for years. I did my A-levels, but I had my first child while still doing A-levels, so I started working after that.

“I live in Llandudno and my children go to school in Colwyn Bay, and if the course hadn't been available so close to home I wouldn't have been able to do it. So I'm really grateful to Coleg Llandrillo and I'm glad the work I put into my A-levels hasn't gone to waste.”

Sarah said:
“I wasn't really thinking about doing a degree. I was looking more into public services or policing. But at the open day the programme leader explained that it was a pathways course with different modules that covered various aspects.

“That grabbed our attention, because we wanted to do different things but it meant we could do the same course.

“Everyone on our course was good at spurring each other on and helping each other. It was an added extra to have my sister on the course with me. We'd say to each other, 'If I can do it, you can do it' or one of us would pick the children up so the other could finish an assignment, and it was great to have that extra support.”
